COMPONENT SALES NEWS RELEASE

Midwest Towers would like to introduce Noel Ogle. Noel has accepted a position in the Component Sales Department replacing Tom Faulkner, who has accepted a position in the Estimating and Tower Inspections Department.

Noel has been in manufacturing for over 30 years, and has been with Midwest Towers over the past 5 years. Noel started as a material coordinator in October of 2006 and later moved to the Purchasing Department in 2010. His previous work experience includes the position of Plant Manager at Airgas/Medical in Oklahoma City for 3 years. His manufacturing background and experience includes 22 years at Gabriel Ride Control/Arvin Meritor, where he held the positions of Business Unit Manager over Strut Production, MRO Purchasing/Maintenance Manager, Maintenance Supervisor and Machine Repair Journeyman. Noel was a facilitator and a presenter for ATQPS (Arvin Total Quality Production System) at Arvin, and also has experience in JIT manufacturing, single source purchasing, as well as many other procedures for streamlining the manufacturing process.

Noel graduated from Chickasha High School and attended the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma, as well as OSU-OKC and Canadian Valley Technology Center.

Noel lives in Chickasha with his wife Margie, and they have two daughters, a son and five grandchildren.

Midwest Towers would also like to introduce Sherrie Franklin. Obviously, most of you are familiar with Sherrie as she has been with Midwest Towers since 1999 working in the Component Sales Department.

Her previous work experience includes the position of Project Manager in the Concrete Division at Tower Tech for 5 years, and 15 years in the Oil and Gas Industry.

Sherrie is a 1972 graduate of East Central State College in Ada, OK and a 1991 graduate of the OU Law School receiving her Legal Assistant Certificate.

Sherrie has lived in Chickasha since 1979, and is a wife, mother and a proud grandmother.
